

HOST A FRINGE ARTIST

Questions? Email dan@capitalfringe.org

Every year, Capital Fringe welcomes out-of-town performers from across the nation to Mexico to New York to Albuquerque and all points in between. Fringe artists generally don't have a lot of extra money for hotels, so we are asking you to volunteer to host a Fringe Artist in our city. We have dozens of people to find housing for—and none of them are picky. So even if you just have a living room floor to offer, we might just take it.

To help us make good matches, please fill out this form completely. The 2009 festival takes place July 9 through July 26, 2009. Most artists start arriving in DC on or around July 6.
